Reflection Paper

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 "For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven. This is a reminder that our lives are constantly changing, and that's something we should expect. Everything we go through, whether good or bad, has a purpose, even if we don't understand it at the time. It may be to deepen our faith, teach us a valuable lesson, or help us grow as a person. There are seasons of seedtime, waiting and harvest… seasons of testing and breakthrough. The difficult seasons are necessary for the good times to come. life isn't so simple as fearing God and choosing wisdom. Life is fleeting and unpredictable and our existence is a blip of time.

The Bible can help us during tough times. It reminds us that God loves us, is powerful, and keeps His promises. If you are facing a crisis, feeling overwhelmed, hopeless, difficult situation and lost, read the Bible verses above and others that speak to your heart. Also, pray to God for help and guidance. He is always there for us. Remember, God's Word is living and active. It is not just a book to be read, it is a powerful tool that can transform our lives. When we spend time in the Bible, we are connecting with God and allowing Him to speak to our hearts. To fall in stay with God’s words amidst the proliferation of fake news and continuing disinformation in society, be intentional in our Bible reading, don’t just read it passively, take time to reflect and apply it in your own life. Talk to others. Talk to other Christians about what you're learning in the Bible. Discuss your questions and doubts. This can help you to better understand God's Word and to grow in your faith.

Don't be discouraged by the proliferation of fake news and disinformation. Trust that God's Word is true and that it will help you to find the truth in all areas of your life. There’s nothing impossible with God.
